Palette 1

Here, the richness and warmth of natural wood colours sets the tone. The kitchen features dark oak laminate cabinets and Caesarstone 'Latte' benches, while in the bathrooms and laundry the same cabinet finishes are contrasted with warm white benches and gloss white wall tiles.

- 'Pearl' walls and white ceilings
- Sand-coloured floor tiles and 'Rich Coffee' carpets
- Glass kitchen splashback with warm 'Hog Bristle' colour backing

Palette 2

If you want to add your own splashes of colour with furnishings and prints, then this colour scheme is for you. Neutral colours are carefully blended, with added texture from the Caesarstone 'Nimbus' kitchen benches, brushed nickel cabinet handles and large square floor tiles.

- 'Oak Buff' walls and white ceilings
- Taupe-coloured floor tiles and 'Rich Coffee' carpets
- Glass splashback in kitchen with 'Grand Piano' colour backing

Palette 3

With earthy tones offset by a range of whites, this scheme creates a contemporary, understated look. Nowhere is this more evident than the kitchen, where sleek mushroom-coloured cabinets are mixed with bright white Caesarstone bench tops and appliances finished in stainless steel.

- 'Polar Bear' walls and white ceilings
- Chocolate-coloured floor tiles and 'Rich Coffee' carpets
- Glass splashback in kitchen with 'Candle Bark' colour backing
